

I urge the commission to retain the cross-ownership ban. A vibrant, diverse, "decentralized" media is critical to the nation's citizenry. Corporate media has benefited from prolonged conversation with the FCC -- please allow the input of those most effected (the public) to influence these decisions.